

Important things to know before sailing?

Funpass Advance Cruise Check-In

Carnival guests are now offered the convenience of checking in for their cruise online! Guests can now complete all the Department of Homeland Security information requirements and expedite their check-in process by visiting www.carnivalcruise.com/mycruise and registering for their cruise in advance. You will need your Carnival booking number, ship and sail date to access your record. Once all the information has been completed, and a FunPass has been obtained, guests will simply go through a documentation verification process after they arrive at the cruise terminal. It's that easy!

Alternatively, those guests without Internet access or those that require language support, can call their local Carnival office for assistance (forms must be completed no later than 5 days prior to sailing).

Please note that failure to provide this information by midnight prior to the day of departure might result in delays in embarkation.

Travel Documentation

Proper travel documentation is required at embarkation and throughout the cruise. Even though a guest has completed registration using FunPass, it is still the responsibility of the guest to bring all required travel documents. Guest should check with their travel agent and/or government authority to determine the travel documents necessary for each port of call. Any guest without proper documents will not be allowed to board the vessel and no refund of the cruise fare will be issued. Carnival assumes no responsibility for advising guests of immigration requirements.

U.S. citizens must present proof of citizenship in the form of a passport (valid or expired for less than 10 years), original birth certificate, state-issued certified copy of a birth certificate from the Department of Health and Vital Statistics, or original Naturalization papers.

Carnival strongly recommends its U.S. & Canadian guests travel with a passport since it will greatly expedite clearance by the Department of Homeland Security.

Important Note for sailings effective 12/31/06:

The U.S. Government will require that all U.S. and Canadian citizens present proof of citizenship in the form of a passport for travel on most of our cruise itineraries, effective 12/31/06. Please make arrangements to comply with this new requirement if your cruise is returning to the U.S. after 12/30/06. U.S. Alien Residents need a valid Alien Resident Card. Canadian citizens must present a valid passport, original birth certificate, or certified copy of a birth certificate. Non-U.S. citizens need a valid passport and a valid, unexpired U.S. Multiple Re-entry Visa, if applicable. Non-U.S. citizens eligible to apply for admission under the Visa Waiver Pilot Program must still have a valid, unexpired passport.

U.S. State Department regulations require all guests traveling from visa-waiver countries be in possession of a machine-readable passport that includes a biometric identifier— i.e., embedded digital photograph. Otherwise, guests will be required to obtain a U.S. Multiple Re-entry Visa. Guests without proper identification may be refused boarding or entry into the United States.

Guest names on travel documents (passport, Alien Resident Card, birth certificate, etc.) must be identical to those on the cruise and airline tickets. Otherwise, proof of name change (e.g., a marriage license) OR a valid driver's license (or government-issued photo ID) must be presented.

On occasion non-U.S. citizens and U.S. Resident Aliens may be asked to surrender their passport and/or Alien Resident Card at time of embarkation. These documents will be returned upon completion of the Immigration inspection at the time of debarkation.

For sailings to Europe, U.S. citizens must have a valid passport. Alien residents and all other non-U.S. citizens are advised to check with their travel agent or appropriate government authority to determine the necessary documents. Certain foreign nationals will be required to obtain a Schengen Visa.

For sailings to Canadian ports of call, certain foreign nationals must obtain a Canadian visa in addition to the U.S. Multiple Re-entry Visa. Non-U.S. citizens must contact the appropriate consulates, U.S. Embassy, and U.S. Immigration office to inquire about necessary travel documentation.

For sailings to Bermuda, U.S. Alien Residents must surrender their passport and/or Alien Resident card at time of embarkation. These documents will be returned upon completion of the Immigration Inspection.

To debark for more than 24 hours in Mexico, guests must have obtained a Mexican Tourist Card from either a travel agent or a Mexican consulate prior to their departure.

When traveling with a minor and both parents/legal guardians are not cruising, we strongly recommend bringing an original signed letter from the absent parent/legal guardian authorizing the minor to travel with you. This will expedite processing by the Department of Homeland Security. Please note that a notarized letter to this effect is required if debarking with children in Mexico.

In addition to the above requirements, all guests 16 years of age or older must provide an official photo ID.

Carnival's VIP Check-in

Carnival's VIP Check-in is an exclusive service designed to afford guests traveling in deluxe suite accommodations with special registration privileges. This service is now available in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale (Port Everglades), Port Canaveral, Los Angeles (Long Beach), New Orleans, San Juan, Galveston, Tampa, Mobile, Jacksonville, Vancouver and New York. If you are entitled to these special services, please ask for Carnival VIP Check-in immediately upon arriving at the cruise terminal.

What About Money?

U.S. currency and traveller's checks are accepted in most ports of call. (except Carnival Liberty Mediterranean Cruises). While you will find traveller's checks to be safe and convenient, we suggest you bring a reasonable amount of U.S. currency for use on board and in port. For your convenience, we have an ATM (Automatic Teller Machine) aboard our ships. However, please note that the supply of money may be depleted prior to the end of the cruise.

Visa, MasterCard and American Express charge cards are accepted in the larger shops in port.

Sail & Sign

For your convenience, charges for most of your on board purchases will be posted to your Sail & Sign account. A required application form can be completed upon pier check-in. A deposit will be required for cash accounts and the amount will range from $100 to $350 depending on cruise duration. Carnival accepts American Express, Visa, MasterCard, Discover Network and cash for deposit on your account. Third-party credit cards, Travel Funds Cards, Credit Card Gift Cards and Mini Credit Cards are not accepted on board.

If you are using a credit card or debit/check cashing card, please be advised that there will be a hold placed on your account as a deposit for your on board purchases. During your cruise, additional holds will be added if your Sail & Sign account exceeds the amount of deposit Carnival has on file. If you present a credit card, this will reduce the amount available on your credit card for other purchases. If you present a debit/check cashing card, the hold will restrict the available cash in your checking account. All charges will be billed to the credit card or debit/check cashing card presented at the end of the cruise. Please note that Carnival Cruise Lines will not be held responsible for any bank-imposed overage or insufficient funds charges on debit or credit cards.

What kind of clothing should I bring?

Casual

Casual attire and resort wear is the order of the day both on board and ashore. Shorts, slacks, sundresses, blouses, etc. are fine for women. Clothing for men is just as casual. You should bring a pair of rubber-soled sandals or sneakers to wear on deck and a pair of good walking shoes. You might also want to consider bringing along a sweater or jacket for cool evenings and inexpensive rain gear in case of a sudden shower.

Formal

You'll have a chance to dress up two nights on 7-day or longer cruises (one night on 5-day or shorter cruise) for the Captain's Cocktail Party and the Gala Farewell Dinner. We suggest formal attire: cocktail dress for women, a dark suit or tuxedo for men. On the other evenings you can dress casually for dinner; that includes sport shirts for men and slacks for women. Shorts and t-shirts are not permitted in the dining room area during dinner.

Guests with Special Needs

Carnival seeks, to the extent feasible, to accommodate guests with special needs so they are able to enjoy our ships and other facilities. In situations where a guest with special needs, such as a guest in a wheelchair, would be unable to be comfortably accommodated due to vessel safety barriers and other criteria, we may find it necessary to ask the guest to bring along a companion to assist or make alternative arrangements. It is mandatory that guests with any medical, physical or other special requirements contact the Guest Access Services department at (+1)800-438-6744 ext 70025 or TTY (for deaf/hard of hearing) at (+1)800-972-4386, to ensure proper arrangements of special needs.

Age Policy

Guests under the age of 21 must be accompanied by a parent, grandparent or guardian 25 years or older in the same stateroom. Infants must be at least four months old to be eligible to travel. Please note that adult guests are responsible for the safety and behavior of their minor guests. Guests under the age of 21 staying at any hotel in conjunction with Carnival's Fly Aweigh program or vacation packages may be required to be accompanied by a guest 21 years or older in the same room as per each hotel's policy. Permission for minor guests to fly unaccompanied is determined by the airlines as per each airline's rules. Guests should check with their scheduled airline for eligibility. Carnival assumes no responsibility for guests under 21 years traveling unaccompanied by air.

Pregnancy Policy

Please be advised that guests who are 27 weeks or more into their pregnancy at the time of the voyage will not be permitted to sail because of the risk of premature labor.

Conditions of Contract

Upon check-in, you will receive a document entitled "Important Notice to Guests". This notice directs your attention to the terms and conditions of your contract. It is important to read this and become acquainted with the specific conditions and limitations of your passage, including time limitations and proper venue in which to file suit. Carnival reserves the right to cancel or substitute any scheduled port of call at any time and for any reason whatsoever without prior notice, and shall not be liable for any loss to guests by reason of such cancellation or substitution.

Weapons, firearms, ammunitions, explosives, incendiary devices, or other dangerous goods are strictly prohibited aboard the vessel. Please see section 4(f) of ticket contract for further details.

Code Of Conduct

We welcome you on board and wish you a wonderful vacation on our vessels. We want every guest to have a truly enjoyable cruise experience. Accordingly, please be considerate of your fellow guests while on board. Carnival will not tolerate any behavior which affects the comfort, enjoyment, health, safety or well being of other guests or of our crew. We reserve the right to refuse or discontinue passage to anyone, who in Carnival's judgment, is conducting themselves in a manner that adversely affects the cruise experience of others. Please refer to paragraphs 6(b) and 24 of your ticket contract for more details on this important policy.

Change in Itinerary

When practical, Carnival will promptly notify guests of a pre-cruise itinerary change through their travel agents, or directly in the case of direct bookings. Carnival will offer such guests an opportunity to cancel their cruise without penalty within 24 hours. No additional compensation for the itinerary change will be offered at a later time. If an itinerary change occurs while a ship is at sea or when notice prior to sailing is not feasible, Carnival will attempt to substitute an alternative port. No compensation will be provided to passengers when an alternative port is offered. If an alternative port is not provided, guests will receive a shipboard credit of $20 per guest. The Vacation Guarantee will not be affected by this policy. The complete itinerary change policy is posted at carnival.com.

Baggage Advice

Please complete the information on your Carnival Cruise Lines baggage tags and attach them to your luggage PRIOR to leaving home.

Airline Delays

Experienced travelers know that air travel schedules can be affected by a number of factors. Should your flight arrive at your ship's home port after the ship's scheduled sailing time due to weather, mechanical problems or the like, contact Carnival at (800) 327-9501 and/or a supervisor at the airline's ticket counter for assistance in securing hotel accommodations and flight arrangements to your ship's next destination. If the airline is unable to provide you with a scheduled flight to the ships' next destination, you will be financially responsible for all expenses. If the airline is unable to secure hotel accommodations, the following hotels will offer a preferential rate. Please call prior to arrival at the hotel for reservations and identify yourself as a Carnival guest.

Once you have reached the first port of call, please proceed to the pier for embarkation.
