

CONSENT FORM FOR MINORS TRAVELLING WITH A RESPONSIBLE ADULT

Unforeseen matters may occur during a cruise which requires us to obtain specific consents from the responsible adult travelling with your child ("the Guardian"). When you allow your child to travel with someone other than their parent or legal guardian, you authorise the Guardian to make decisions in the interests of your child, including all decisions which a parent or legal guardian can make.

The Guardian may be asked to make decisions relating to matters such as your child's safety, health and dietary requirements, medical treatment and decisions relating to disciplinary matters.

Please complete the authorisation below and provide a copy of this form at check-in

We recommend that the Guardian carry this completed consent form during their cruise.
